Apollo Club News - Summer 2006

So what's been happening with Apollo over the past few months you may ask? Well we have still been busy, even though we have had a couple of cooler months and rather chilly nights. We had a lovely winter's evening at a member's house in August, superb roast dinner, plus a spa, excellent. September found us at another member's house for an impromptu get together. Nothing had been planned for that month, so one of our members opened up their house for any that wanted to turn up, we had a great night playing pool, trying out the new massage table and having a good chat, there was a nice warm log fire and once again the good old spa.

Unfortunately the planned bushwalk in October had to be cancelled as the normal spots we go to have been closed because of dieback. But we did have a non-nude picnic on Heirisson Island. This Island is in Perth city, but you wouldn't think it. It's quiet, has beautiful bush areas and large enough for an hour or so stroll, we had a lovely day for this, only drawback was we couldn't go in club uniform.

We still have our houseboats coming up in November. We always have a great time over this weekend. Last year we had a pirate theme, not too sure what this years will be, but I am sure we will think of something before we set sail. Look out in the next edition of Australian Sun and Health; hopefully there should be a good story of the weekend in it.

We have our Christmas party planned for the 2nd December. We have hired a hall and a Karaoke Jukebox for the night. We shall we see how many of us are game enough to let our hair down and sing the night away.

Then its 2007 and we have a day on Warnbro beach on Australia Day planned, this is a lovely beach, just south of Perth. We have a sausage sizzle and then a swim, in the lovely calm waters.

February we will be having our annual River Cruise, 4hrs cruising up the Swan River, on a warm summers night, in the nude of course; nothing like it.

Of course we will also be having our regular monthly swims, which we hold on the 3rd Sunday of the month from 2pm – 5.30pm, visitors are always welcome to either our swims or functions. For further details please contact the club on 0423 068 364.
