COUNCIL RESOLUTION

Moved Cr P Edman, seconded Cr B Warner

That Council take the following action:

- 1 Advise the Officer in Charge at the Rockingham Police Station that it has been reported to Council that a photographer has been sighted in the dunes in the vicinity of the Port Kennedy Free Beach and requesting that police undertake patrols of the area.
- 2 Upgrade the signage indicating the Free Beach area.
- 3 Council officers prepare a comprehensive report on the suitability of the existing Free Beach in Port Kennedy, addressing issues associated with recent complaints and taking into consideration the substantial residential growth adjacent to the area and also the progressive development of the Port Kennedy Estate.

- 4 Council officers to consult with the WA Police Department to identify data on wilful exposure and indecent acts that have occurred in that area and include such data in the comprehensive report.
- 5 Seek clarification on what is deemed to be lawful as a nudist on Western Australian beaches and if the sand dune area is also a Free Beach area.
- 6 Upon completion of the report, Council consider all aspects in relation to the Free Beach and make a decision in relation to it's retention or closure.

Carried – 9/0

NOTE: Council changed the Committee Recommendation to provide for an investigation into the suitability of an area of beach in Port Kennedy remaining as a Free Beach.
